

Social Emotional Learning

April 2020

Social Emotional Learning helps student development by raising self-aware, respectful children, who know how to manage their emotions, make responsible decisions, and resolve conflicts peacefully.

Below are some strategies that to try each day to help improve these skills! Have fun 😊

Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
6 Have a karaoke night. Children can sing their favorite songs. Give compliments for each person's attempts, and take turns singing and being the camera-person.	7 Ask someone how their day was, and what they are hoping will be different tomorrow?	8 Practice mindfulness for at least 5 minutes. 	9 Take turns humming songs and have others try to guess the name of the song. Be patient with everyone!	10 Call a relative to get a recipe for their famous dish that you love!
13 Share your most embarrassing moments, wishes, and/or dreams	14 Use some chalk or tape to create happy messages on your driveway! 	15 Play charades. Include some actions to demonstrate emotions.	16 Read a book while sitting in the sun. 	17 Make a thermometer, with the bottom as a starfish and top as a tornado, use it to show your feelings each day.
20 Take a long bath or shower and use your favorite shampoo.	21 Discuss a time you were mad this week. What could you do different next time?	22 Organize a closet and make a bag of items to donate to others.	23 Make a card for someone in your family. Give 2 compliments.	24 Ask a parent what extra chore you could do that would help them today.
